

PARENT COMMUNICATION

We are anxious to keep communication lines open between school and home. To better help parents know what is going on at school many schools send a newsletter home regularly. We suggest you keep the newsletters in the folder provided at the first of the year for reference. If you have concerns or comments please call the school.